

Dear EJ Colleagues,

as you might know a new EU General Data Protection Regulation has come recently into force. Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 – hereafter referred to as: GDPR)

To be fully compliant with GDPR, We, European Journalists Association-The Communication Network asbl (EJ), have updated our privacy policy, which applies to all our EJ members, visitors and users of our website (www.european-journalists.eu).

In the attachment You find the Our privacy policy referred to the use of you data by the EJ in compliance with the EU GDPR.

However, as of today, regarding your data We have in our EJ mailing list Your email (the one We use to send this message to You) only. In case that You will require registration to one of the events that We organize or co-organize and more data will be required (e.g. phone numbers, addresses). We will put them in our system if You provide it to Us.

I you do not want to receive any email from Us, please reply to privacy@european-journalists.eu
writing: USUBSCRIBE

We invite you to read the full privacy policy in the attachment and if you still have any questions, please get in touch with Us via privacy@european-journalists.eu

Best wishes

Poalo Magagnotti

EJ President
